

SPOT
 THE front carriage from Alton Towers, famous Corkscrew rollercoaster ride has been sold for charity on eBay by the theme park for £7,300.

SPOT
 A WOMAN, 57, faces a careless driving charge after steering her car on to railway tracks while dressed as a CLOWN in Southport, Merseyside.

FAITH'S HEART OP
 TINY Siamese twin Faith Williams had a successful operation to close her chest yesterday after heart surgery. Faith — whose twin Hope died after they were separated — was to have conjoined twins. The shire, is Britain's youngest mum Laura, of Shrewsbury, Shropshire, and husband Aled thanked staff who gave birth on November 26, night. Mum Laura Williams, 18, had a successful operation to close her chest yesterday after heart surgery.

SPOT
 Scout leaders yesterday of Par, Cornwall, said it came at an angry hippo capsized them "like a submarine missile". They swam to the riverbank and trekked through Guinea, West Africa, for five days before finding help at a village. The trio, on a month-long scouting trip, have earned the 20ft vessel named their 20ft vessel Michael Billworth, 23, Sheen, 66, Geoff Ryder, an angry hippo capsized them "like a submarine missile". They swam to the riverbank and trekked through Guinea, West Africa, for five days before finding help at a village. The trio, on a month-long scouting trip, have earned the 20ft vessel named their 20ft vessel Michael Billworth, 23, Sheen, 66, Geoff Ryder, now returned to Britain.

the water. And Brian, beneath — tossing 16st ing help at a village. The trio, on a month-long scouting trip, have earned the 20ft vessel named their 20ft vessel Michael Billworth, 23, Sheen, 66, Geoff Ryder, an angry hippo capsized them "like a submarine missile". They swam to the riverbank and trekked through Guinea, West Africa, for five days before finding help at a village. The trio, on a month-long scouting trip, have earned the 20ft vessel named their 20ft vessel Michael Billworth, 23, Sheen, 66, Geoff Ryder, now returned to Britain.

Probe call as 92 die

AN MP is demanding inquests into the suspicious deaths of 92 elderly patients at a hospital. Tory Nigel Waterson has written to Justice Secretary Jack Straw urging action over Gosport War Memorial, Hants. Mr Straw has already ordered inquests into the deaths of ten OAPs given huge doses of morphine. Two docs and seven nurses are being probed. In Hyde, Manchester, Dr Harold Shipman is said to have killed 250 patients.

Law fake is caged

A CONMAN has been jailed for two years for impersonating a barrister. Ian Clegg, 32, bought a wig and gown on the internet and set off for "work" each morning. He defended clients in court for driving offences. But officials grew suspicious that he was not familiar with proceedings. Clegg, of Middlesbrough, made hundreds of pounds from charges. He admitted impersonating a barrister and fraud at Teesside Crown Court.

Bush chucker tria

So close... Bush ducks flying shoe