No problem John, I'll scan the docs in and send tomorrow. Meanwhile, have just got home from London and can report the docs were safely delivered.

Hi!

That's okay. Thanks for the email.

Yes- good idea I think. At least it will mean the police do not have the chance to select it out.

It goes without saying but please make sure you keep your originals. Would you mind very much also sending me exact copies of what you give to the CPS with a one line covering letter. Just another way to make sure they do not wriggle out of receiving it.

Just in Dorset for a few days recharging the batteries.

Best wishes

Dear John,

Sorry to trouble you during your break (assuming you see this).

I am planning to be in London tomorrow (Tuesday) and was intending to deliver a copy of Prof Ford's expert medical report to PC. I just wanted your opinion on whether or not I should also give him a copy Sylvia Giffin's very revealing police statement and selected papers relating to the early 1990s?
