Hi!

Legally I think Mr Horsley has the powers he needs for these statements.

I will 'phone his office. Last week I kept getting an answer machine

Best wishes

I am getting to the point when I feel like putting a firework behind him – either I am right in law or I am not - will somebody please tell me - particularly in view of this morning's comments re. the Duggan case. Gillian With e mails etc. why cannot somebody pick up the phone from Horsley's office and get a date sorted out.
