

Thank you John, and happy to follow your advice.

Guess what? Having just sent my email to you the attached letter arrived in the post this morning. Either Hoban is as useless as I have suspected for some time, or he is being deliberately obtuse.

I'd be grateful for your thoughts on how I might respond (have attached my letter of 19 May for convenience). Personally, I feel like making it short and very sharp !!!!!

Hi!

Thanks for the update

Ann has had a "slightly silly" acknowledgement from the CPS who are talking about their complaints procedure

I will write to them shortly. I think what we want is a "proper review" from the CPS. Talk of complaints suggests that we are unhappy with the outcome of review that has not yet taken place.

I think we should try to use the MPs given then they need to demonstrate their value at the moment. Do let me know how it goes.

Lovely day outside at the moment.

I'll copy you in on my CPS letter when I have done it.

Best wishes

John

Dear John,

I've still not had a reply or acknowledgement from the CPS following my letter of 24 April and email reminder of 11 May. Have been wondering if you have heard anything, and whether you think I should now write to Carmen Dowd in person (registered)?

I spoke with Nina Lakani of the Independent last week and she had learned from her enquiries with the CPS that they had received both my efforts, and would be answering in due course!!!!!! That is something, but isn't it time they had the courtesy to tell me?

Interestingly too, I have not heard from the NHS although you would have passed on my particulars when they were asked for, and Ann R had a letter from them some time ago. Seems curious to say the least - or perhaps they are being economical with their apologies.

Also, my MP (Hoban) is still to reply my letter asking for the support of his Tory colleague in parliament, etc. They are probably more worried about their own skins at the moment, but I'll let you know when something transpires.
