Dear Mr Farthing,

Thank you for your confirmation of attendance and apologies for the delay in getting back to you.

The meeting is at Richmond House, 79 Whitehall, SW1A 2NS at 2:30 on Friday, if you go to reception on arrival and say you are here to see Norman Lamb someone will come down to collect you.

I should inform you that Iain Wilson is also attending the meeting along with his MP Caroline Dineage. Can I ask whether Caroline is also your MP?

Many thanks,

Thank you for your email and invitation which I would like to accept on behalf of both my wife and I. Please advise the exact address and room details to which we should go. It is coincidence that I wrote and posted a letter to Mr Lamb earlier today requesting a personal interview (copy attached). Notwithstanding your email, my request is still valid as it is most unlikely there will be any discussion on individual cases on 13 Sep.

Kind regards,
 Charles Farthing

Dear Mr Farthing,

Norman Lamb would like to invite to you to a meeting at the Department of Health to discuss the publication of Prof Baker's report into deaths of patients at Gosport War Memorial Hospital on Friday 13th September, 2:30-3:30.

We are happy to be flexible if that time and date is unsuitable, so please let us know. We will be inviting other families and campaigners so would be happy to accommodate any others you feel should attend.

Many thanks,
