Quote

“A coroner’s decision not to allow an inquest jury to consider a verdict of unlawful killing or to leave a narrative verdict to the jury was considered to be improper in R (on the application of Helen Cash) v HM Coroner for the County of Northamptonshire. A fresh inquest before a different coroner and a jury was ordered by the Court”

I do not know the particulars of this case – but a useful quote to be borne in mind !!. Does this have any bearing on the three verdicts – inappropriate and contributory in the Bradley inquests. ? Thank goodness in my case everything rests on Horsley – so far I do not have a query on his credibility. Gillian
