Dear Ms Bailey

General Medical Council ("GMC") - Dr Jane Barton

I write further to my colleague, Sarah Ellson's letter dated 1 May 2009 and our telephone conversation earlier today.

I am now able to confirm that you are required to attend the GMC's Fitness to Practise Panel on Monday 22 June 2009. Although we do try our best to make sure that you are dealt with on that date, occasionally the timetable slips a little and we may need to move you to the next working day. It is not until the FTP hearing commences that we are further able to estimate timings. In the circumstances, I would be most grateful if you could also keep Tuesday 23 June 2009 free, just in case we do need to move you.

I will be sending you a letter, together with a witness information pack, within the next week or so. In the meantime, I would be most grateful if you could contact me on telephone:  or email:  To confirm receipt of this letter.

Kind regards.

Dear Ms Cooper

June Mary BAILEY DOB:

Mrs Bailey has come into surgery today saying that she has been asked to attend a GMC hearing. She came in feeling quite significantly distressed from this and says that she has not slept since she got the letter on Monday.

Her grandchild was recently stillborn and she is still getting over the distress of that and feels that because of this she will be unable to manage in court. She certainly seemed very stressed and anxious today and is finding your contact by telephone and mail quite distressing.

I wonder if she could stand down as acting as a witness.

Yours sincerely
