Press Cuttings Summary
Friday 3 September 2010

Direct Mentions

Print & Online Mentions

In a feature secured by the media team, Take A Break magazine presents scenarios from GMP in Action for readers to choose what they would do, with an explanation of what best practice is in each case.

The Jewish Chronicle reports on the GMC’s equality scheme consultation, following a press release issued by the media team: http://www.thejc.com/news/uk-news/37528/gmc-seeks-jewish-views

An article in Hospital Dr chronicles the work of Dr Steve Bolsin, who raised concerns about the mortality rate of children undergoing open heart surgery at Bristol. The author supports those who are applying for Dr Bolsin to be recognised in the honours. The article mentions Good Medical Practice: http://www.hospitaldr.co.uk/blogs/remedy/time-to-honour-the-bristol-whistleblower

A second article about the Medical Defence Union’s new guidance for doctors about to start their first post as a consultant looks at the skills needed to become a successful consultant and references the GMC’s Good Medical Practice and Management for Doctors guidance, as they list leadership as a key quality in any doctor: http://www.hospitaldr.co.uk/guidance/developing-leadership-skills-guidance-for-new-consultants

Fitness to Practise

- Code A - given warning after not being found impaired - widespread but largely brief coverage.
- Dr Krishnan Chander Sadotra, a Halifax GP, will appear before an FTP panel next week accused of deficient performance, refusing to take on patients not of Indian origin, and bullying staff, among other charges. (Calderdale Evening Courier)
- Dr Theodore Soutzos - The Evening Standard reports that Dr Soutzos, a psychiatrist, is impaired on the grounds of his inappropriate sexual conduct with patients. Sanction is expected today. Also in The Daily Telegraph, The Scotsman.
- A brief article about:[Code A] his research and his appearance before the GMC is in the Orange County Register: http://www.ocregister.com/articles/-264431--.html?pic=1
- The Daily Mail (online) reports that Dr Nicholas Hunt, the pathologist who performed Dr David Kelly’s autopsy is the subject of a warning by the GMC: http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-1308509/David-Kelly-doctor-Nicholas-Hunt-cautioned-breaking-GMC-rues.html

Revalidation

An editorial in Geriatric Medicine notes Andrew Lansley’s letter to Peter Rubin extending the revalidation piloting period, but says that even before it is introduced it is important for physicians to update their knowledge through CPD. They note that their own upcoming ‘Older Patient’ conference carries six CPD points.

Broadcast Mentions

No broadcast mentions of note.

Letters pages
A correspondent to the Scottish Daily Mail laments the lack of a statutory duty of openness and honesty with patients, saying many doctors ignore GMC guidance on keeping patients informed. They write that the UK government has pledged to address this, but not the Scottish government.

A correspondent to the Guardian suggests the CPS decision not to prosecute anyone for the death of Code A should be re-examined now that Code A has been found impaired by the GMC. Another suggests the original coroner in the case should be replaced by a suitably qualified judge.

Headlines:

MTN - Broadcast, GMC (Press) 2 article(s)

PATHOLOGIST AT THE CENTRE OF CONTROVERSY SURROUNDING MANS DEATH AT G20

Carried out the first post mortem examination on Code A. A GMC said he had made serious mistakes in other unrelated cases.

PATHOLOGIST TO LEARN WHAT SANCTIONS HE FACES

He is involved in controversy over a man's death at the G20 protests last year. Dr Patel carried out the first postmortem examination on Code A. A GMC panel said he made serious mistakes in unrelated cases. CLIP: guardian.co.uk. VISUAL: Eat.

GMC 41 article(s)

'Bloodgate' doctor is cleared by the GMC

The matchday doctor at the centre of the "Bloodgate" fake rugby injury scandal has been told she can practise medicine again.

'Bloodgate' medic's relief

The matchday doctor at the centre of the "Bloodgate" fake injury rugby scandal said yesterday she was pleased that she could return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.

Sick cover-up

Rex Patterson (Letters) has good reason to suspect a cover-up by the authorities over his wife's tragic death. Unlike other European countries, Britain has no 'duty of candour' for medical professionals. GMC 'guidance' places a duty on all doctors to inform patients and where appropriate apologise.

GP to face a charge of misconduct

A Halifax GP will appear before the General Medical Council next week accused of misconduct.

'Bloodgate' doctor airs delight at panel ruling

The matchday doctor at the centre of the 'Bloodgate' fake injury rugby scandal said today she was pleased that she could return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.

WORLD TONIGHT

The General Medical Council will rule today whether the fitness to practise of the matchday doctor at the centre of the Bloodgate row.
Bloodgate doc looks to future

The matchday doctor at the centre of the "Bloodgate" fake injury rugby scandal said yesterday she was pleased that she could return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.

- United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

Elsie's Law campaign at Number 10

The grieving daughter of an elderly woman who died in a hospital investigated over the deaths of some of its patients led a protest march to Downing Street yesterday.

- United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

Fight for justice over deaths goes to No. 10

Relatives of patients who died at Gosport's War Memorial Hospital while under the care of Dr Jane Barton took part in a silent march from London's Royal Courts of Justice to No 10 Downing Street.

- United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

'Bloodgate' doctor can still practise

The General Medical Council has ruled that the doctor at the centre of the rugby 'Bloodgate' scandal can practise medicine again.

- United Kingdom - 01/09/2010

CASE DIRECTOR of Public [...]

Keir Starmer's decision not to proceed with any prosecution following the death of at the London G20 protests in April last year was wrong.

- United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

'Bloodgate' medic gets formal warning

The matchday doctor at the centre of the "Bloodgate" fake injury rugby scandal said yesterday she was pleased that she could return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.

- United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

The 'bloodgate' saga has been a great strain, admits doctor

The matchday doctor at the centre of the 'Bloodgate' fake injury rugby scandal said she was pleased that she could return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.

- United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

Bloodgate doctor: I'm pleased to carry on

The matchday doctor at the centre of the "Bloodgate" fake injury rugby scandal has said she is pleased she can return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.

- United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

Bloodgate doctor is looking to future

The matchday doctor at the centre of the "Bloodgate" fake injury rugby scandal said yesterday she was pleased that she could return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.

- United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

'Ashamed' Bloodgate doctor tells of rugby scandal nightmare

The matchday doctor at the centre of the "Bloodgate" fake injury rugby scandal said she is hoping to return to medicine and put her 18-month nightmare behind her.

- United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

G20 victim deserves more than cover-up

The decision of Keir Starmer QC, the Director of Public Prosecutions, not to proceed with any prosecution following the death of at the G20 protests in April last year was wrong on its face.
Bloodgate doctor: I'm pleased to carry on

The matchday doctor at the centre of the "Bloodgate" fake injury rugby scandal has said she is pleased she can return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.

GMC says pathologist was 'irresponsible'

A General Medical Council disciplinary panel yesterday ruled the pathologist who carried out the first autopsy on who died at last year's G20 protest - acted in a way that amounted to misconduct during two earlier post-mortem examinations and his fitness to practise is impaired.

Chapman escapes with formal warning

The doctor at the centre of the infamous 'Bloodgate' scandal has escaped with only a formal warning over her role in the affair.

Formal warning for 'Bloodgate' doctor

The doctor at the centre of the "Bloodgate" fake injury rugby scandal said she was pleased that she could return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.

Conferences: engage in CPD

Since the inauguration of the new government in May, Andrew Lansley has updated the status of revalidation amongst multiple other high-profile changes to medical practice.

'Bloodgate' medic's relief

The matchday doctor at the centre of the "Bloodgate" fake injury rugby scandal said yesterday she was pleased that she could return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.

YOU ARE THE DOCTOR

Every day your doctor makes quick decisions that can change people's lives. What would you do?

How to survive a Shark bite

A SMASH in the face from one of Sale Sharks' meatier forwards was bad enough but an even bigger shock to the system awaited Ryan Wilson as he got his first taste of elite rugby a fortnight ago.

Kelly doctor cautioned for breaking GMC rules

It has emerged that Nicholas Hunt, the pathologist who performed Dr David Kelly’s autopsy, is still under a five-year warning for breaking General Medical Council guidelines.
The matchday doctor at the centre of the ‘Bloodgate’ scandal is free to return to medicine and hopes to put an 18-month “nightmare” behind her.

Psychiatrist found guilty over affairs

A Harley Street psychiatrist could be struck off after he was found guilty of conducting improper sexual relationships with three vulnerable women patients. A General Medical Council tribunal heard Dr Soutzos then begged the women to lie about the relationships and said revelations about them would “destroy” him and “kill” his mother.

It's not just cricket, is it

Is it a coincidence at the same time as the Pakistan alleged 'no ball' scandal is rocking cricket circles the rugby ‘bloodgate’ GMC hearing has also been happening (Metro, Wed)?

Psychiatrist told young patient: try older, uglier men

A Harley Street psychiatrist faces being struck off after having improper sexual relationships with vulnerable female patients.

Tomlinson inquest needs a senior judge

Readers' letters: "How convenient for the Crown Prosecution Service that the General Medical Council's damning indictment of [Code A] conduct of postmortems didn't come out before it took its predictable decision not to proceed with any prosecution over the death of [Code A]."

Psychiatrist had sex with patients

A PSYCHIATRIST faces being struck off for having improper sexual relationships with vulnerable female patients.

G20 pathologist faces sanctions

G20 PATHOLOGIST FACES SANCTIONS A General Medical Council disciplinary panel earlier ruled [Code A] acted in a way that amounted to [Code A]. The pathologist who carried out the first post mortem on [Code A] who died at last year's G20 protest, is due to find out whether he is to be struck off the medical register.

GMC seeks Jewish views

The views of Jewish patients are being sought by the General Medical Council as it launches a consultation on equality.

Doctor in fake blood scandal given formal warning

LONDON (Reuters) - A doctor who cut a rugby player's lip to disguise a fake injury during a European cup game and then lied about the incident has received a formal warning, Britain’s medical regulator said on Wednesday.

'Bloodgate' doctor eyes fresh start said the saga had been a "great strain" as she looked ahead to finding new employment.

Bloodgate doctor given a formal warning

The matchday doctor at the centre of the 'Bloodgate' fake injury rugby scandal said yesterday she was pleased that she could return to medicine and hoped to put an 18-month nightmare behind her.
Aviva Premiership - 'Bloodgate' doc free to carry on working

A doctor who cut a rugby player's lip to disguise a fake injury during a European cup game and then lied about the incident has received a formal warning. The General Medical Council found Code A guilty of 'profoundly serious' misconduct that damaged her profession's reputation, but said she could keep working as a doctor.

Yorkshire Post - United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

'Bloodgate' doc gets formal warning

A doctor who cut a rugby player's lip to disguise a fake injury during a European cup game and then lied about the incident has received a formal warning. The General Medical Council found Code A guilty of 'profoundly serious' misconduct that damaged her profession's reputation, but said she could keep working as a doctor.

Yorkshire Post - United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

Psychiatrist may be struck off

A Harley Street psychiatrist faces being struck off after having improper sexual relationships with vulnerable female patients.

Yorkshire Post - United Kingdom - 02/09/2010

Web links:

National Newspapers:
The Times
The Independent
The Guardian
The Daily Telegraph
The Daily Mail
The Daily Mirror
The Daily Express
The Sun
The Financial Times

Other Regular Newspapers:
The Scotsman
The Herald
The Press & Journal
The Manchester Evening News
Irish News
Belfast Telegraph
News Letter
South Wales Echo
South Wales Evening Post
Western Mail

Medical Press:
Pulse
BMJ
HSJ
The Lancet

Online Media:
The BBC
Channel 4
Sky

The Press Cuttings Website