Mrs MacKENZIE wrote on 3rd February..

The points of relevance raised in her letter were as follows:-

1. She feels that she cannot communicate with Code A and should her case ultimately be classified a category 3 and prosecuted she would like a new family liaison officer.
2. The HASLAR files in respect of her mothers case have never been sent to the CPS.
3. Mrs MacKENZIE has highlighted the relevant points within the Haslar files, and asks that they are brought to the attention of the reviewing experts. As her previous letter, she has copied the relevant extracts of the notes and penned her observations on the rear. (Code A to arrange for the notes to be typed for expert review as in the case of previous observations please).
4. Mrs MacKENZIE requests a copy of FLO job description Code A to arrange please.

Thanks. DW.

I have not formally replied in writing given my telephone conversation with Mrs MacKENZIE of 14th February.
