File Note.

Spoke with solicitor Ian BARKER of the medical defence union in respect of ongoing interviews with Dr BARTON.

He apologised for the delay in response to the Code C disclosure he has been unwell, he will make contact with his client to establish where she is with her prepared response.

I informed Mr BARKER that we proposed to conduct 9 further interviews under caution and that I would be seeking to put together a series of suitable dates for interviews at intervals of one month, for the first few cases and to review the position after five priority cases.

Mr BARKER commented that he would be very content with this proposal and would support it. In general terms Mr BARKER commented that the arrangements previously set in place for the Devine interview were very fair.

I stated that I would write to Mr BARKER to confirm the arrangements and to propose a series of dates.
