

24

Research Training Seminars for Allied Health Professionals

Would you like to get to grips with the processes and terminology used in allied health research?

Would you like to update your literature searching skills with the new, updated library resources?

Are you thinking of setting up a small research project in Portsmouth?

Would you like a free sandwich lunch at 12.30 before the seminar???

Friday 16 th January 2004 1.00 – 2.00	Qualitative research methods used in AHP research.	Sue Barnard (SMH Physio)	Function Room, Finchdean House
Friday 23 rd January 2004 1.00 – 2.00	Quantitative research methods used in AHP research.	Matt Quint (SMH Physio)	Large Conference Room, Finchdean House
Friday 6 th February 2004 1.00 – 2.00	Demystifying statistics in AHP journals.	Bernie Higgins (Portsmouth ARDSU)	Rehab seminar room, QAH
Friday 20 th February 2004 1.00 – 2.00	Update on Library Database searching.	Pauline Blagden (Portsmouth NHS Library service)	IT training room, 2 nd floor, Overton Centre, St James Hospital
Friday 5 th March 2004 1.00 – 2.00	Undertaking research in Portsmouth NHS	Kate Greenwood (Portsmouth NHS R&D manager)	Function Room, Finchdean House

To book a place and lunch please call in advance tel: