Good afternoon, Clare

I have prepared a fresh bundle, to including the additional documents you wanted to be included.

I have repaginated the bundle by hand and whited out the copier numbers afterwards.

In doing so, I have ensured that documents from the original bundle are there (there are two 155s: 155 and 155.1, admittedly).

The original 'working bundle' or the documents you asked to be included have not been touched and remain with your original bundle.

Can I ask you to review your report and insert the page references in the report and in the schedule. If you're happy for me to do this I will.

If you want the documents to be re-ordered or certain documents to be extracted (such as the opinion to the PPC) please let me know.

So you have an idea, the bundle as it will appear before the PPC (only) will be as follows:

Frontsheet: reg.s details, previous consideration details and list of the documents attached

Section A: the allegations put to each practitioner (eg. Section A 1 of 7, Section A 2 of 7)

Section B: report from the in house legal team

Section C: schedule supporting the report

The body of the bundle will then begin from page 1 - 343

References obtained by the NMC for each registrant will then appear afterwards (from page 343) and be listed on the front sheet.

I am not in the office tomorrow but working from home. I will be back on Monday. I understand that you've freed up your diary to concentrate on reviews but I would value the opportunity to meet.

I am going to return the origina bundle and revised one in the library.

Thanks
