

The News

The We Can Do It newspaper

Wednesday, September 18, 2002

32p

Farewell to Dame Judith

PAGE 13

It's super Matt

Taylor's the sensational hero as Pompey win yet again

WHAT DO I TELL OUR CHILDREN?

HE WATCHED his beloved wife walk to the place where she met her brutal death. Now he doesn't have the words to explain to her children how such a fantastic mother's life could have been taken in that way. Chris Adams had driven his debt collector wife Michelle to a routine job from which she never returned, fate bringing her into contact with killer

Tony Whiting. Now Chris has spoken of his determination to protect his family.

FULL STORY ► Pages 2-3

Above: Michelle Adams.

Left: Chris Adams at home with children Kirely, 13, Craig, 5, Anthony, 4, Keran, 3, and baby Kieranna

(Not for scale)

The News TODAY

Doctor faces charge in deaths inquiry

THE doctor involved in inquiries into the deaths of unborn patients in Gosport's War Memorial Hospital is facing a charge of serious professional misconduct over the former Mrs Paul (Christie).

FULL STORY ► Page 5

Bridge cash doubt

PLANS to improve road safety at Portsmouth may be ditched to pay for the proposed new £2.2m bridge at Copple at the port's eastern end to get funding from the government.

FULL STORY ► Page 7

Library use drops

WEST Sussex libraries may be struggling during next of books a sector that's formed as it was revealed that book-goers were using the service.

FULL STORY ► Page 10

SUMMER KITCHEN SALE

40% Off Gallery Kitchens

- Quality at a price you can afford.
- No obligation demonstration and quotes.
- Complete installation service
- 240 Orders in 24 hours from
- 240 working hours
- All leading makes of appliances available

112-114

112-114

112-114

The South's Leading Kitchen Specialist

Tel us We'll do

www.dabbledirect.co.uk

112-114 Baldern Road, Southsea PO2 7JH 0783 3791

Off Portsmouth Avenue, Fratton, Portsmouth

OUR COMMUNITY WORLDWIDE

WWW.PORTSMOUTH.CO.UK

sbs
SOUTH BRITAIN
STATION