

Horsley, David

---

From: Horsley, David
Sent: 26 November 2007 14:19
To: 'William Dolman'
Subject: RE: Operation Rochester - Deaths at Glossop War Memorial Hospital

Thanks, Bill. I'm glad you had a good cruise, Delyth and I are now struggling to lose the pounds gained from good ol' down home Southern cooking. I hope I'll be able to speak to you soon.
D.

David C. Horsley
H.M. Coroner
Bournemouth & South East Hampshire

-----Original Message-----

From: William Dolman [mailto:Code A]
Sent: 26 November 2007 14:00
To: Horsley, David
Subject: RE: Operation Rochester - Deaths at Glossop War Memorial Hospital

Thanks David,
I arrived back in Southampton yesterday morning having put on 13 lbs in a 16 day cruise. Now dieting before Christmas. Thanks for all the information. I will give Andrew Walker a few days to get his feet under the table and then can pick up the strings of the Glossop inquests for you. I have no problems in helping you and think that they may not take as long as you fear. Thank you too for information about accommodation. Let me take one step at a time and it would be very helpful to meet Chief Supt Willams. You can gather that I am more than happy to undertake these inquests as your Asst Deputy. I spoke to Andrew Walker about the appropriate fees and you know what I learnt from him...see last e-mail. (as a full-timer I have never had to think about them.) Does Judith Bernstein know that I have said yes? I believe that she has an interest...

More later,
Bill

Horsley, David

---

From: William Dolman Code A
Sent: 26 November 2007 14:00
To: Horsley, David
Subject: RE: Operation Rochester - Deaths at Glossop War Memorial Hospital

Thanks David,

I arrived back in Southampton yesterday morning having put on 13 lbs in a 16 day cruise. Now dieting before Christmas. Thanks for all the information. I will give Andrew Walker a few days to get his feet under the table and then can pick up the strings of the Glossop inquests for you. I have no problems in helping you and think that they may not take as long as you fear. Thank you too for information about accommodation. Let me take one step at a time and it would be very helpful to meet Chief Supt Willams. You can gather that I am more than happy to undertake these inquests as your Asst Deputy. I spoke to Andrew Walker about the appropriate fees and you know what I learnt from him...see last e-mail. (as a full-timer I have never had to think about them.) Does Judith Bernstein know that I have said yes? I believe that she has an interest...

More later,
Bill